

Contents

Introduction

Multi media and multimedia
The many media
Social media are not “new.”

1

Broadcast Content Management

Fit for Purpose
Branding
Remember
Scheduling
Multi-channel scheduling
Day Parting
Day part time shift
Six hour blocks
Twelve hour blocks
Strips
Zones
Lifestyles zones
Planned random
Acquiring
1. Set objectives
Set targets
2. Set evaluation strategies
3. Budget for evaluation
4. Briefs
5. Creativity

2

A diversion into education

How people learn
Dale's Cone of Experience
Cognitive Domain (Head)
Affective Domain (Heart)
Psychomotor Domain (Hands)

3

Writing outcomes

Let's write some outcomes for the web
Bloom's Taxonomy: Cognitive Domain

(Anderson and Krathwold)

4

Interactivity and Social Media

Maximising audience' emotional needs
Social networks

5

New Media

Definition
Perspective
Analogue and digital
Indispensable?
Useful?
What really is New Media?
New Media and people
“New Media Savvy”

6

The broadcaster websites

Magnet
Schedule
Programme information and marketing
Prior to broadcast
After broadcast
Mission, vision etc
Corporate information
Advertising
Programme purchasing
The website has to sell
A drama
An educational programme
Tie-ins and add-ons
Mobile strategies

7

A Brief History of Social Media

Let's go digital
The Phone Phreaking Era (1950's – Early 90's)
CB Radio
Computers come in
The Dawn of the World Wide Web – 1991
Search engines
IRC, ICQ and Instant Messenger
Commercial Online Services
Then came the cell phone
P2P – BitTorrent – and “Social” Media Sharing
Social Networking & Social News Websites
Talk

8

What are Social Media?

The magic
Social media sell something.
Unfounded optimism

9

Social media today

The move to the niche
Forums, online communities and portals

Blogs
 Micro-blogging
 Social networks
 Social News Sites
 Web newspapers
 Multimedia sharing
 Social bookmarking
 Wikis
 Professional sites
 Computers and cellphones merge, and cellphones come into their own
 Mxit
 Mxit in education

10

Characteristics of social media users

What do South Africans do on New Media?

11

The Do's of social media

Types of social media
 Understanding the Types of Social Media
 Understanding people

12

The don'ts of social media

Don't think it's cheap and easy
 Don't think you're in control.
 Don't think it's easy money
 Don't look for ROI
 Don't run an empire
 Don't assume you'll stay on top

13

Bloggng

What's blog?
 Newspapers and blogs
 Journalism and blogs
 Broadcasters and blogs

14

Setting web, Internet and social media objectives

The Cone of Objectives

15

Targeting the user base

The Internet Types
 Creators
 Critics
 Collectors
 Joiners
 Spectators
 Inactives
 The Social Media Types

1. The Newbie
 2. The Status Seeker
 3. The Name Dropper
 4. The Serial Linker
 5. The Unashamed Self-Promoter
 6. The Bore
 7. The Guru
 8. The Obsessed Fan
 9. The Inspiration Seeker
 10. The Hater
 11. The Rebel
 12. The Socialiser
 Others

16

Strategy

Before you start
 Conversations and conversations
 The long tail
 A cost free strategy
 Be patient
 Five Steps to marketing through social media
 1. Start with strategy
 2. Create a powerful network built on user-generated content
 What Users Want
 Content Is Active
 Sharing Institutional Content
 3. Give the network content a foundational identity
 4. Multiply the networks power
 Many Tools Working Together
 5. Measure the network's power
 Setting up
 To start with
 Some behaviours to embrace
 Combine your tools
 Use multiple tools and spread your presence!

Be patient - The effect will be there!

17

A template for strategy

Summary
 SABC Education focus
 Armchair activism
 Strategy Template
 Background
 Objectives
 Target market
 Site description
 Costs and returns
 Marketing

Risks

18

A worksheet for targeting the audience

1. Concept
2. Uniqueness
3. Audience

Demographics

Psychographics

Media group

Attitude group

4. Level
5. Content

19

Is the language of the programme suitable for the audience?

Using MS Word Readability Statistics

Interpreting Readability Statistics

Prefer the simple to the complex word

20

South African Communications Statistics

Internet Usage and Population Statistics:

Latest online readership October, 2010

Unique Browsers

Page impressions

Mobile

Profile of SA's Internet Users:

21

Social Media in action

Ushahidi

Trends in South Africa

Citizen journalism

Elections

Engaging with customers

SMS

22

What else?